OVERVIEW

The Indian Ocean Defence & Security (IODS) 2026 Conference and Exhibition is Australia’s premier platform for showcasing capability and forging connections at the intersection of national defence and regional security.

Held in Perth, Western Australia — a critical gateway to the Indo-Pacific region — the event provides exhibitors from defence, government, research, and aligned industries such as mining, communications, logistics and commercial shipping with direct access to decision-makers and global partners.

WA is a vital enabler of national defence objectives including the AUKUS nuclear-powered submarine program, Collins Class sustainment, naval shipbuilding enterprise, and emerging multi-domain capabilities. IODS 2026 offers unmatched opportunities to position your organisation at the forefront of Australia’s defence future and unlock new business, innovation and collaboration pathways across the region.

WHY ATTEND IODS 2026?

IODS 2026 is a world-class exposition designed to connect stakeholders, showcase sovereign capabilities, and foster international collaboration.
